Dear Mrs. Rose,

I am writing to formally acknowledge and confirm Jack County's commitment to the tax abatement agreement established by the City of Jacksboro and other relevant taxing entities in response to the devastating tornado that struck our community on March 21st, 2022. As per the agreed-upon terms, Jack County will fully support and implement the standard abatement agreement to provide relief to property owners who suffered damage due to the tornado. We recognize the importance of assisting those affected by such natural disasters and are dedicated to ensuring a streamlined process for tax reduction. Please consider this letter as our official affirmation of cooperation with the tax abatement initiative, and feel free to reach out if any further information or clarification is required from our end. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Brian Keith Umphress
Jack County Judge
